

OUR NETWORK

Updated on 6 October 2023

Our membership

108

Child Rights Connect is a network of 108 member and observer organisations united to advance the realisation of children's rights around the world.

Organisation types

Note that organisations may identify as several types of organisations

Where we work

Note that organisations may work in several continents

196

of countries in which our Network works

64%

of our Network organisations operate in the Global South

www.childrightsconnect.org

Thematic focus

In addition to supporting the overall implementation of the UN Convention on the Rights of the Child and its Optional Protocol, our members and observers work on:

Child participation & safeguarding

Health Children in alternative care Youth

Children and poverty Gender equality

Education Girls' rights

Child human rights defenders

Access to justice Civil and political rights

Children with disabilities Women's rights

Right to nationality Children and minorities

Children and violence Child trafficking

Children's rights and the digital environment

Early childhood development

Children deprived of liberty Nutrition

Livelihoods Sexual exploitation of children

Rights of children on the move

Children's rights and the environment

Rights of children in humanitarian settings

Rights of children of incarcerated parents

Rights of children living on the streets

Child labour and exploitation

Business and children's rights Child's right to play

Children's rights and artificial intelligence

Economic, social and cultural rights

Working with children

71%

of our members and observers work directly with children from their communities

Child safeguarding of our members and observers operate with a child safeguarding policy and procedure

67%

